

Ipswich Borough Council
Job Description: K76a

Lawyer
(contentious/regulatory practice)

Main Purpose of Job

Contentious/regulatory practice

Provide a comprehensive legal service to all members and officers of the Council, including prosecution in criminal matters, bringing and defending civil proceedings, representing the Council in various tribunals and public inquiries and providing a legal advice service to cover the whole spectrum of legal advice according to field of expertise and generally assisting the Lead Lawyer to provide timely and well managed cost effective legal services to the council as well as other clients.

Main Duties

1. Provide a general and specialist legal advisory service to all officers and members of the Council, orally or in writing, as appropriate and urgently in emergencies as required (including advice on new legislation, Government circulars etc).
2. To advise (including attendance when required) at Council meetings on a range of legal issues relating to local authority work.
3. To be responsible to the Lead Lawyer:
 - for the effective use of and the effective operation of the case management, time recording and electronic records management system which support and enhance the efficiency and accessibility of transactional based case work, workflows and other corporate legal work;
 - to personally provide high quality accurate legal advice (orally and in writing) and undertake a range of case work compatible with the Council's policies on all legal matters relating to a local authority and undertaken by the Council (or on behalf of other Suffolk Authorities as appropriate).

4. To provide advice (attending as and when required) at business meetings, Council committees and sub committees, and including area committees (day and evening meeting attendance required).
5. Acting as advocate at Court, tribunals or public inquiries and representing the Council as legal advisor at business meetings.
6. Take instructions, issue proceedings or documents, negotiate and advice on transactional cases and settlements in line with scope of any authorisations given by Head of Legal and Democratic Services.
7. Vet reports to committee with particular reference to advising on the applicable law and monitoring compliance with policy and/or any legal implications in relation to proposed decisions making.
8. Such variations as may be required from time to time without changing the general character of the duties shown above or the level of responsibility entailed.
