What is proposed?: Survey provided online with links on social media, webpage, other partners sharing link. Also the survey will be available in paper form at an air quality event held at the Cornhill on 24th October. Survey to be provided to CSC to allow responders to complete the survey over the phone or sent out a paper copy.

Why are the changes being introduced?: Survey is part of grant funded air quality project on domestic burning.

What evidence is being used to support this Equality Impact Assessment, and how is it being used?: Consideration has been given to ensure survey is accessible to all members of the public by providing access online, over the phone, by post and at a face to face event. The survey results will be used to inform the overall campaign.

How will this change be implemented?: To establish a baseline of current knowledge and practices for residents of Ipswich. To inform future messaging for the campaign. To evaluate success of the campaign.
