

IPSWICH MARKET ACT 2004

Ipswich Market (Lloyds Avenue) Prohibition of Traffic Order 2021

Ipswich Borough Council acting in pursuance of its powers under Section 5 of the Ipswich Market Act 2004 and considering it both necessary and expedient to do so has made the above Order to regulate traffic on part of Lloyds Avenue in Ipswich.

The effect of the Order, which comes into force on 25th October 2021, is to prohibit motor vehicles on that part of Lloyds Avenue between the junction with Cornhill and a point 46 metres north of the junction with Cornhill (that is the taxi rank turning head) between the hours of 8.30am and 4.30pm on any day on which the market is being held. Exemptions shall apply as shown in the Order. The Order also exempts motor vehicles being used by market traders or Council officials for purposes associated with the holding of the market from loading, unloading and access restrictions contained in any Traffic Regulation Order on the same section of Lloyds Avenue between 5.30am and 6.00pm on any day in which the market is being held.

A copy of the Order may be viewed on the Council's website at www.ipswich.gov.uk
